The Impact We're Making

A short write up about the current events with either how Data Gives Back is involved with the Seasons Centre, an update about Seasons, or an update about the broader Mental Health conversation that Joe is involved in (talks or pieces of personal impact).

How to Do More

Just by supporting Data Gives Back you're a big part of supporting this impact, but if you wanted to do more directly we would be thrilled if you donated to the Season's Centre, or contact me about getting involved in other ways.
